

GNOPS Book Fair

The GNOPS Book Fair is a community project to celebrate the Greater New Orleans Pediatric Society's 50 years of making a difference in the lives of the children in Greater New Orleans. Together we are collecting gently used and new books for children of all ages (0-17 years old) to benefit Kingsley House.

Kingsley House's mission is educating children, strengthening families and building community. Founded in 1896, the New Orleans social service agency is focused on early-intervention programs that increase the capacity of their participants and enhance the quality of their lives.
